Project Name: Lower Campus Block Party-Bounce House	Project Date: Sunday, April 29 th , 2018
Department Affiliation: Residence Life	Event open to the entire student body? Yes

Has your group submitted a proposal in the past? Yes No If so, when? April 2017

Describe the nature of your project (Target population, number of students involved, length of project, etc).

The target population will be mostly focused on lower campus (VK, GLC, Armington). However, it will be open to overall community. We are anticipating around 300 students present. The event will be 5-7pm on Sunday, April 29th, 2018.

What do you hope to achieve with this project?

To provide an opportunity for Lower Campus to come together as a community and take a moment to relax, eat some great and let go of some stress as they head into finals week. This has been the 6th annual block party and we have seen many so much positive outcomes with the event. The bounce house adds a unique feature to be active but a fun dynamic to the overall event.

How much money are you requesting from WCSA? (Please provide an itemized budget)

Westmont College Mission Statement

Westmont College is an undergraduate, residential, Christian, liberal arts community serving God’s kingdom by cultivating thoughtful scholars, grateful servants and faithful leaders for global engagement with the academy, church and world.

WCSA Mission Statement:

WCSA is the voice that represents the diverse views, beliefs, needs, and desires of our student body. We seek to unify faculty, staff, administration, and students by promoting communication and initiating change at Westmont College.

How does your project relate to the mission of the college and WCSA?

We believe that providing this opportunity for students to come together and enjoy each other’s company can benefit their mental and emotional health through being active but also engage in social setting that is intentional and welcoming to the overall community. We also have seen students gain a boost in their morale with the approaching finals and a new sense of focus to their academics.
